About Us:

Shah Satnam Ji Boys College, founded in January 2000, is nestled in the serene vicinity near Shah Mastana Ji Dham on Begu Road in Sirsa, Haryana. Its strategic location, just 4 km away from both the railway station and the bus stand in Sirsa, ensures convenient accessibility for students from the region.

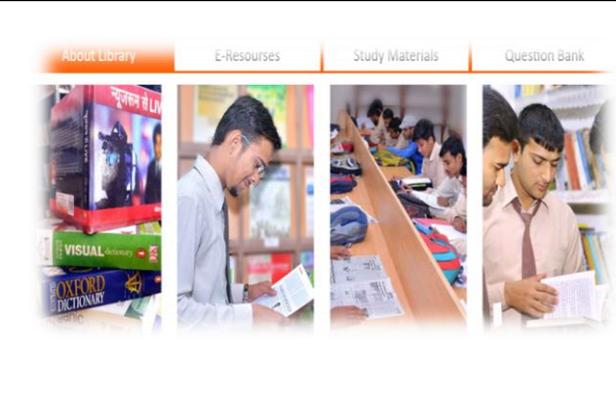

Spanning across an expansive 8-acre campus, the college offers a refreshing escape from urban congestion, boasting lush greenery and a pollution-free atmosphere. This institution is affiliated with Chaudhary Devi Lal University and proudly holds all the necessary approvals from the Government of Haryana.

Shah Satnam Ji Boys College has demonstrated remarkable achievements in the fields of sports, academics, and moral education. At its core, the college's mission is to nurture and produce highly intelligent students with unwavering moral values. These students are not only academically accomplished but are also well-prepared to contribute to society with their outstanding academic excellence and ethical principles. The motto of the college reflects its commitment to developing students who are not just academically exceptional but also morally grounded, ready to serve society with their talents and values.
